

The lights switch-on is just the start of a magical Christmas in Congleton Town Centre

- The town's lights will remain on until the New Year from 3pm-11pm. The Town Hall will be illuminated with a festive projection from 16 December, 4.30pm-9.30pm.
- Congleton Town Council is funding free car parking in Princess Street (Market), Fairground (Library) and Back Park Street (Lawton Street) car parks after 10am on the three Saturdays in December – giving you a longer time to stay and browse.
- Many shops will be dressing to impress with some great Christmas Windows.
- Congleton's Makers Market will be back on Saturday 30 November and 21 December.
- The Congleton Market Quarter will have an independent street market on Friday 29 November for the switch-on, also with entertainment.
- Many independent businesses will be offering a Totally Tenner Wednesday – look out for special deals and start your weekend extra early!
- Rotary will be switching on the Tree of Light in the Community Garden on Saturday 30 November at 4pm.
- Help your local town and High Street by spending local and enjoying what Congleton has to offer you this Christmas.

Stay Local, Celebrate Local, Shop Local, Enjoy Local.
